Welcome to Faith Fest 2019—Our 9th Year!

I am so pleased to be able to send you the information about this year's lineup of programs. We have a marvelous set of opportunities to meet each other and learn about that which sustains us from each other.

Local faith communities and the Owensboro-Daviess County Ministerial Association have really stretched to offer you new places to visit and groups to meet. In fact, we have more faith communities opening their doors this year than ever! They really want to have you come to visit and learn about their faiths, prayer, and ways of life.

This packet includes material for:

- Leadership- professional or volunteer
- Religious educators
- Event coordinators
- Publications- in your bulletin or on your bulletin board

If your organization has different people handling all of those, you can divvy the resources up. If you're the only one "in the office," that works, too.

The packet also includes a disk with resources for printing or for electronic distribution of Faith Fest materials. You can find these and a few more things online at www.FaithFest.org .

This year is only the ninth Fest, but it's the Twelfth Year for the Interfaith Thanksgiving Service. If you can't make it to anything else, would you please come (or send a representative) to the Interfaith Thanksgiving Service on Sunday, 24 November @ 2:30 pm at the Unitarian Universalist Congregation, on the corner of Cedar & Parrish. Please come to offer a prayer or teaching from your Tradition; we'll all be richer for your participation. Details are on the enclosed invitation.

I will be at every event (though I'll be late for two because of my teaching schedule!); I really look forward to this annual opportunity to learn more about others and ultimately to learn more about my own faith! I'd love to have you bring a carload—or busload—of folks with you to any or all of the events. Let me know if I can help you make that happen,
