Dear Religious Educator,

Peace and All Good!

Faith Fest Owensboro 2019 will begin on Friday, 8 November and run through the Interfaith Thanksgiving Service on Sunday, 24 November. This is our ninth year and it is an exciting opportunity to get to know about world religions right here at home!

Many faith homes are opening their doors to visitors—and they all welcome questions about their Traditions. Please invite your students and their families to visit as many as possible.

This year we have several new events—and many more communities involved. Full details are on the printed brochure and are available in an electronic edition in the packet that has been distributed to your community. A single-sided edition of the brochure is also available in the electronic resource if you want to distribute it to your students. Of course, all materials are also available at www.FaithFest.org.

I am also attaching a reference guide that breaks the events into three categories: Educational Opportunities, Prayer Experiences, and Fellowship Events. Classes and study groups are welcome at all of them!

I would ask you to notice that one event requires you to make a reservation in advance:

- To attend the Community Thanksgiving Meal (by 15 November)

Please call me if I can help facilitate your participation in any way,

Claudia
