

Mark your calendars and spread the word. We've tried to plan ahead this year, so all programs are tentative, but the dates are firm.

Let's have a good crowd for our first session of 2019 at the Daviess County Public Library.

January 14, 6:30 P.M.: 50 Years after MLK, Where Are We Now? Mary Danhauer and Peggy Wilson will present an overview of the Poor Peoples' Campaign

January 21, 8:30 A.M.: Annual MLK Day March, Owensboro High School to Kentucky Wesleyan College.
10:00 A.M.: Dr. Arnold Farr, Kentucky Poor People's Campaign, KWC Rogers Hall

February 11th, 6:30 P.M.: Japanese Internment Camps: A Panel Discussion

March 11th, 6:00 P.M.: "Delores, The Movie" Film about Delores Huerta

April 8th, 6:30 P.M.: Immigration issues, The Human Side