

www.nonviolentowensboro.org

Established in Nov. 2016

A local chapter of Campaign Nonviolence*

WORKING TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN OWENSBORO:

We are working to coordinate the efforts of all the justice organizations in town—so we can all be more efficient with our resources and more supportive of each other.

MEETINGS

1st Monday of the month @ 7:00 PM.

Meetings are free and open to the public.

Hosted by the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Owensboro

located on the corner of Cedar & Parrish.

Mission Statement

We are Owensboro area citizens committed to practicing and promoting nonviolent living through education
and community partnerships.

Campaign Nonviolence, a project of Pace e Bene, is a long-term movement to build a culture of peace and nonviolence free from war, poverty, racism, the climate crisis, and the epidemic of violence and injustice. For more information regarding Campaign Nonviolence: www.paceebene.org*

Coming Up...

Nonviolent Direct Action Training, Part 2:

19 May 2018, 8:30 am-4:30 pm Training offered by Pace e Bene.
Held @ Zion UCC on Saturday, $25 Register online @
www.paceebene.org

What We've Been Doing...

Co-Sponsor for Community Workshop:

Bystander Intervention & De-escalation Training @ the Daviess County Public Library, Sunday, 23 April 2017

Sponsor for Three Night Film Series:

The films were documentaries on the topics of Bullying, Torture, and Middle East Peace efforts @ the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Owensboro, Tues-Thurs, 25-27 July 2017.

Co-Sponsor for Community Race Conversation:

In conjunction with the film, Get in the Way: The Journey of John Lewis @ the Daviess County Public Library, Monday, 21 August 2017.

Co-Sponsor for 11th Annual Peace Vigil

Held @ the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Owensboro on Monday, 11 September 2017, 6:30-8:00 pm.

Sponsor for International Day of Peace Rally

Held @ the Riverfront on Thursday, 21 Sept. 2017.

Sponsor for Local Campaign Nonviolence Action Week

Coordinated community events 16-24 September 2017.

Host for Faith Fest Book Discussion

On the book, The Spiritual Power of Nonviolence: Interfaith Understanding for a Future Without War by George W. Wolfe. Held @ the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Owensboro on Monday, 5 November 2017, 6:00 pm.

How You Can Get Involved...

Commit to prayer or meditation for peace...

Join with a grassroots global movement for peace, economic justice, environmental healing and effective nonviolent solutions...

Attend our meetings or let us know what your justice organization is doing so that we can strengthen each other...

Read The Spiritual Power of Nonviolence: Interfaith Understanding for a Future Without War by George W. Wolfe and join us for the Book Discussion during Faith Fest...

Study Nonviolent Lives: People and Movements Changing the World Through the Power of Active Nonviolence by Ken Butigan. (We use a chapter of this book at each of our meetings)

Attend local Interfaith events to get to know your neighbors. These are sponsored by the Owensboro Daviess County Ministerial Association and move from faith home to faith home...

Participate in local Race Conversations at the Daviess County Public Library. These are scheduled about once a month. Check DCPL website for calendar/ details...

Make a donation toward the cost of bringing more training from Campaign Nonviolence to Owensboro to help us learn more about non-violent civic action. Contact our leadership for information: Mary Danhauer, Organizer, @ 7012 St Rt 56 Owensboro, KY 42301 or danhauermp@msn.com

Visit us on Facebook at Nonviolent Owensboro for up-to-date information on meetings and special events.