

QUOTES FROM FAMOUS AMERICAN UNITARIANS AND UNIVERSALISTS

Original language preserved

Susan B. Anthony (1820-1906) It was we, the people; not we, the white male citizens; not yet we, the male citizens; but we the whole people, who formed the Union.

Olympia Brown (1835-1926) There is nothing in all the world so important to you as to be loyal to the faith which has placed before you the loftiest ideal, comforted you in sorrow, strengthened you for noble duty and made the world beautiful for you.

William Ellery Channing (1780-1842) The soul by its sense of right, or its perception of moral distinctions, is clothed with sovereignty over itself, and through this alone, it understands and recognizes the Sovereign of the Universe.

Clarence Darrow (1857-1938) The pursuit of truth shall set you free- even if you never catch up with it.

Dorothea Dix (1802-1887) The tapestry of history has no part at which you can cut it and leave the design intelligible.

Ralph Waldo Emerson (1803-1882) Cast conformity behind you, and acquaint men first hand with Deity.

Sophia Fahs (1876-1978) Life becomes religion whenever we make it so: when some new light is seen, when some deeper appreciation is felt, when some larger outlook is gained, when some nobler purpose is formed, when some task is well done.

Robert Fulghum (1937- ) Don't worry that children never listen to you; worry that they are always watching you.

Margaret Fuller (1810-1850) If you have knowledge, let others light their candles from it.

Florence Nightingale (1820-1910) For what is Mysticism? Is it not the attempt to draw near to God, not by rite or ceremonies, but by inward disposition? Is it not merely a hard word for "the Kingdom of Heaven is within?"

Adlai Stevenson (1900-1965) The power of the liberal is in helping ourselves and others to see some of the possibilities inherent in viewpoints other than one's own.

OUR COVENANT

We come together in fellowship and love,
open to each other's beliefs.
As a congregation, we create a place
for open dialogue, search for truth, meaning, spiritual growth, and justice.
To these ends we commit to each other and to the larger community
our selves and our talents.
Written by UUCO founders, 1987

OUR CURRENT LEADERSHIP

President: Tom Hicks (270) 684-1548
Minister: Rev. Dr. Claudia A. Ramisch

OUR MISSION

The Unitarian Universalist Congregation of Owensboro is a visionary church
that builds healthy relationships
and advocates a just society
through spiritual growth, ethical action,
and community service.
