

Friend:

As part of Faith Fest 2021, NonViolent Owensboro is offering Bystander Training. The training will be led by Meta Peace Team members. It will be held on November 13, 2021 starting at 10 am CT and running for 4 hours with ½ hr. for lunch. There will be time to practice the methods that are being taught as well as interaction with others interested in avoiding violence in all its forms.

Below is the REGISTRATION LINK – Please register and then you will receive an email with the link for the actual training.

Owensboro and all areas of the nation have experienced increased violence, domestic as well as gun violence. This training will equip you with the tools that you need to deescalate situations that you might find yourself in. I encourage you to take advantage of this free training by the experts in the field of nonviolence! One can never learn enough about this valuable tool in our tool kit!

Mary Danhauer (she/her) is inviting you to a scheduled Zoom meeting.
