NONVIOLENT OWENSBORO CELEBRATES WEEK OF NONVIOLENT ACTIONS

'Working to Make a Difference in Owensboro'

Campaign Nonviolence National Week of Actions! Owensboro events, organized in part by NonViolent Owensboro, include:

Tuesday, Sept. 11 – Interfaith Meditation Service & Peace Vigil at 1UU, Corner of Cedar and Parrish, 6:30-8:00 pm. Volunteers offer prayers of peace from their faith tradition that focus on peace, interspersed by intervals of silence. In this way we commemorate those victims of violence as we turn our own gaze toward a peaceful future

Monday, Sept. 17 – "I Am Not Your Negro" film screening at Daviess County Public Library, 6 pm. This 2016 Academy Award nominated Best Documentary describes the history of racism and civil rights through the experience and work of James Baldwin. A discussion will follow. Registration requested, but not required, on the Events page of the library's website beginning Sept. 10.

Thursday, Sept. 20 - Owensboro Peace Rally by the River at Smothers Park, 6:00-7:00 pm. The theme of the 2018 International Day of Peace is, "The Right to Peace - The Universal Declaration of Human Rights at 70." There will be music and guest speakers.
