NONVIOLENT OWENSBORO CELEBRATES WEEK OF NONVIOLENT ACTIONS

'Working to Make a Difference in Owensboro'

Campaign Nonviolence National Week of Actions! Owensboro events, organized in part by NonViolent Owensboro, include:

Saturday, Sept. 11, 6:30 PM – "9/11 Interfaith Meditation Service & Peace Vigil" Volunteers offer prayers of peace from their faith tradition that focus on peace, interspersed by intervals of silence. In this way we commemorate those victims of violence as we turn our own gaze toward a peaceful future. Depending on status of COVID this event may be in-person at 1UU, corner of Cedar and Parrish, or online only. Visit uuowensboro.org for update and a link to the Zoom version of this event.

Sunday, Sept. 12, 2:00 PM – "Nonviolence Conflict Reconciliation in Education" Robin Wildman, founder of Nonviolent Schools RI, will explain how to use nonviolence education to build peaceful school communities. She believes that every child deserves to experience the joy of learning in a Nonviolent school environment. Visit NonViolentOwensboro.org for link to this Zoom event.

Tuesday, Sept. 21, 6:00 PM – "Owensboro Peace Rally / International Day of Peace" by the River at Smothers Park. The theme of the 2021 International Day of Peace is, "Recovering better for an equitable and sustainable world." There will be music and guest speakers.
